FROM THE DESK OF COMMANDANT

Dear Rds./Cadets, Parents and Esteemed Staff,

It gives me immense pride to address you through this edition of our school newsletter “वीरांगना”. A military school is not merely an institution of learning; it is a crucible where discipline, character, leadership, and patriotism are forged together. Our cadets are being groomed to face challenges with courage, integrity, and resilience. Each day on campus—whether in the classroom, on the parade ground, in the hostel, or during sports—offers an opportunity to cultivate mental toughness, moral strength, and academic excellence. I am particularly proud of the determination and maturity our girls demonstrate as they balance rigorous academics with physical training and value-based living.

Education at our school goes beyond textbooks. We aim to develop confident young leaders, capable of independent thought, compassionate action, and unwavering commitment to the nation. Success, however, is never an individual effort alone. I acknowledge the unwavering support of our parents and the relentless dedication of our teachers and staff, whose guidance and mentorship play a pivotal role in shaping our cadets’ journeys.

As we move forward, let us continue to uphold the core values of Duty, Discipline, and Honour. May every Rd./Cadet strive not only to excel but also to inspire others through her conduct and commitment. I wish all our Rds./Cadets continued success and encourage them to always remember—leadership begins with self-discipline and ends in service to the nation.

With best wishes,

Maj. Sapna Sharma (Retd.)

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Rds./Cadets, Parents and Esteemed Staff,

We all who work and study at Bhonsala are blessed by God. We feel fortunate that He has chosen us to work in Rambhoomi, the land blessed as the karmabhoomi of our great visionary founder, Dharmaveer Dr. BalkrishnaShivramMoonje. It is his dream that we all strive to follow, to prepare our Ramdandees to guard our nation. Our Ramdandees should be the pride of the nation. Ramdandees need to be academically, physically, and mentally fit to face all the challenges of life. They need to be officers in the Armed Forces and serve the nation to the best of theircapacitive .

The school celebrates various cultural and sports events. All these activities help build confidence for participation in the competitive world. They teach team spirit, enthusiasm for winning, and the grace to accept failure. Failure should always be taken as an opportunity for introspection, leading towards success. The path to success may not be straight; it may have twists and turns. However, one must become strong at every turn and pave the path to one's own identity.

“Nothing succeeds success,” and it comes only with discipline, hard work, commitment to oneself, and continuous positive efforts. Success has no shortcuts. The more you work, the greater your confidence becomes, and the closer you move towards perfection.

Dear Ramdandees, you are trained to change the world's perspective. You must also change society's perspective towards women. Women can reach the highest positions if they remain fearless against gender bias and build careers in the Armed Forces, administration, and other challenging fields of life.

Choose your ideals and strive to achieve greatness like them. Start from help yourself to overcome all odd where you are and with what you have, and never be satisfied. Keep the hunger for success alive. Circumstances, and always keep your vision and goals clear in your mind, as they will guide you towards victory. Every step you take should make you stronger in academics, sports, co-curricular activities, and logical thinking. Grow as tall as you can, and let success touch your feet in every walk of your life.

Stay blessed always.

Jai Hind.
